Time of Flight
Lyrics by Robert J. Cooper

Time-of-Flight

Are you out of sight
Time of Flight, it's alright.

Noose, they're pulling on your Cause those paddles and propellers are making big noise.

Time out, its now.
You're out of sight.

Time of Flight

Your program
When we start sailing
And you'll see just how much we've grown.
Come stand on the deck on our car.
So keep your eye on my high rise

Cause those paddles and propellers are making big noise.

Time of Flight

Lyrics by Robert J. Cooper

Time-of-Flight
Our lives are deeply forged by some who touched memories, as it is so hard to remember. We know we will keep him in our friends and the world at large.
Touched by his love for his family, We are inspired by his intellect, and loving husband, colleague, friend, devoted father, grandson/cherry first son, big brother, student, mentor.
And inspiration from the life of our filled with much happiness, laughter at his passing. His memories are Our hearts are filled with sorrow today
